Section Chief

Wins Scholarship

Russell Cann, the newly elected Section Chief of SR-5 has received a $40,000 Eagle Scholarship. It is the largest educational grant awarded by the BSA Eagle Service each year. To win the National Mabel and Lawrence S. Cooke Eagle Scout Scholarship, one must be ultimately dedicated to the high ideals of scouting and relentless in their quest for academic success.

Eagle Scout Russell P. Cann is the son of Leo and Connie Cann and has an exceptional record in Scouting, including many leadership positions. He is Assistant Scoutmaster of Troop 401 chartered to the St. Marks United Methodist Church in Greenwood, on Camp Old Indian Staff, and a two term OA Lodge Chief. He will enter the Honors Program at the University of South Carolina this Fall.

HELP!

Johnnie C. Brown, Sect. Secretary

This year as section secretary I want to make the section communication more efficient. To accomplish this goal, I will need your help.

Each lodge needs to send the following:

- * Key lodge officers/advisers with names and addresses (15-25 per lodge please) for a direct mailing list for future newsletters. Please send this ASAP so we can begin developing our mailing list.
- * Articles about past and future lodge events, activities, etc.
- * Your lodge newsletters (we will use these to pull out additional information for articles).

All information needs to be sent to:

Johnnie C. Brown
2401 Cypress St.
Columbia.,SC 29205

The next Five Feathers will be issued during the second week of September. Therefore, we will need your articles by the Aug. 21, 1994. Don't let your lodge be left behind as Section SR-5 moves into the forefront of the Southern Region!

J.L.T.C.

Johnnie C. Brown, Indian Waters Council JLTC Senior Patrol Leader

The Indian Waters Council is now planning to offer a Junior Leaders Training Conference (JLTC) in the summer of 1995. The purpose of a JLTC is to strengthen the leadership skills of unit junior leaders. Having JLTC's will help to make Section SR-5 one of the leading sections in the south.

The JLTC staff includes: a Scoutmaster (Sue Eleazer), two Assistant Scoutmasters, an adult

Quartermaster, a Senior Patrol Leader (Johnnie C. Brown), an Assistant Senior Patrol Leader (Andy

Price), a youth Quartermaster (Ace Acevedo), four Patrol Guides, four Instructors, and a kitchen crew. To be a staff member you must be at least a life scout, committed to helping others, and exemplify the Scout Oath and Law in your daily life. Each staff member will be carefully interviewed and only those who meet the specific qualifications will be chosen. If anyone is interested in being a part of the JLT Staff Family, feel free to call Johnnie C. Brown at 254-2873.

MUSCOGEE #221

Ryan Barnette, Lodge Chief

I would like to say that Muscogee Lodge #221 has had a great year. Everyone had a super time at the Dixie Fellowship. I would like to thank the brothers of Bobwhite Lodge for the excellent job they did. I would like to remind everyone of our Super Summer Fellowship on August 18-21. I would like to invite any and all section brothers to attend. On another note, I would like to encourage inter-lodge visitation. I hope that everyone will take the opportunity to go visit another lodge during this year. Have a great time at N.O.A.C., and I hope to see everyone soon.

Other lodges... your report could have been here too!
Please make sure you have an article in the next issue!

Adviser's Minute

Bill Loeble, Section SR-5 Adviser

The new national theme of the Boy Scouts of America is "Character Counts-- Be Prepared for the 21st Century." This goes on by the following amplifying statement --- "We believe that Scouting is the best place for young people to learn moral values and important leadership skills that will help them be better citizens in today's community --- and prepare them to become better leaders in tomorrow's world as well."

Today many other organizations have allowed themselves to become so diluted with tolerance, they don't stand for anything. It is refreshing and rewarding to be a part of an organization such as the Boy Scouts of America. The BSA has chosen not to compromise its values.

Over 6000 youth and adults are assembling at Purdue University in Indiana for a time of friendship, fellowship, and cheerful service. This is yet another tribute to the leadership and character development - that we can attract such an attendance with so many activities from which young people can choose - some very positive and some not very positive at all.

I for one am very proud to be a continuing part of the Boy Scouts of America, the Order of the Arrow and in particular your Section Adviser.
